RE: Materials Disposal

I respectfully request permission to dispose of two grand pianos in the Bacon Academy music wing. In the opinion of the professionals, these two grand pianos are now unusable due to years of exposure to variable levels of heat and humidity in the band and choir rooms. The need for maintenance on one piano would exceed the cost of a new piano. The second piano is only able to hold a tune for approximately one week when the normal period for a piano to hold its tune can be up to 6 months.
